

Michigan Brownfield Location Distribution

Locations by county as of October 1, 2022

Source: Michigan Department Environment, Great Lakes, and Energy

Note: A brownfield site is a vacant property that was once used for industrial purposes and has the potential for redevelopment, however, has the presence of environmental contamination.

SFA Staff Contact: Chris Semrinec, Fiscal Analyst

