

Michigan Chronically Absent Students

Change in statewide average chronically absent student rate from base year FY 2013-14 to Fiscal Year 2022-23^A

Percentage of chronically absent students in Fiscal Year 2022-23 by local education agency (LEA)

^AData includes both Local Education Agencies and Public School Academies.

Source: Michigan Center for Educational Performance and Information
SFA Contact: Ryan Bergan, Senior Fiscal Analyst

Note: Michigan uses the definition of chronic absenteeism from the United States Department of Education: students who were enrolled in a district/school for at least 10 consecutive days are considered "chronically absent" if they missed 10 percent or more of the possible scheduled days.

